"Camouflage" is an inheritance from the late war

Some of it is to be found in current advertising.

Small type does not necessarily imply small prices. Big type cannot successfully disguise big prices. People are interested in VALUES—not type. In the announcement of the A. & S. Half-yearly Furniture Sale the same size type, neither large nor small, which we have been using for fifty-six years, carries to the public our message of superior values and superior qualities.

THE A. & S. HALF-YEARLY SALE OF FURNITURE

A Strictly 1921 Production, Offering Great Savings on TODAY'S Much Lower Prices

IN order to appreciate the VALUES afforded by this outstanding Furniture Sale it is quite unnecessary to hark back to the higher prices of last year.

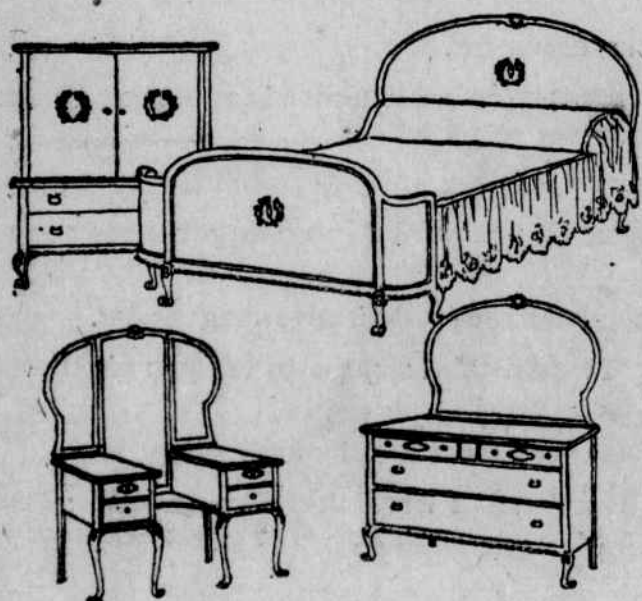

Prices have come down—there is no question about that. The public has been expecting this; and it is an accomplished fact. But the point is, that these A. & S. Sale prices show important savings even over the new low-price levels of 1921. And a little "shopping around" and comparing on your part will prove this to your own great satisfaction.

The Furniture is all NEW. Its lines are beautiful, simple, in good taste. Much of it is newly made after our own ideas. The new purchases are all priced on a specially low scale of prices. And all the Furniture previously on our floors is

REDUCED FROM 10 TO 50%

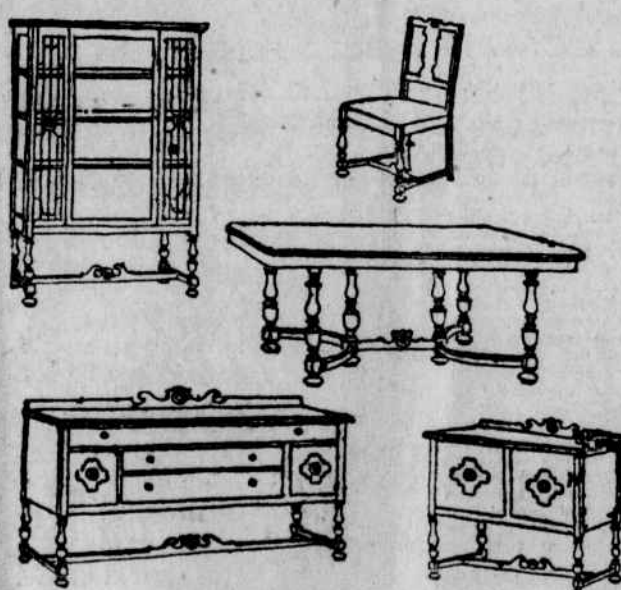

The Sale opens its doors tomorrow, Monday, August 1st, for everybody to see, and to buy.

And, from experience, we urge the importance of PROMPT SELECTION!
